Freedom Investment Management Client Agreement

The undersigned party (“Client(s)”) hereby retains Raymond James & Associates, Inc., (“RJA”), a registered broker/dealer and investment adviser, to establish an account(s) in the Freedom Program (the “Program”) sponsored by RJA, and to provide investment advisory, brokerage and other services in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this investment management agreement (“Agreement”). RJA acts as custodian or sub-custodian, as applicable, for funds and securities deposited in Client’s Account(s). For Individual Retirement Custodial Accounts (IRA Accounts), Raymond James Trust Company of New Hampshire is custodian (RJ Trust Co NH – Custodian) and IRA accounts are sub-custodied by RJA. Obligations, rights, duties, responsibilities, and limitations on the scope of services and liability of Asset Management Services (“AMS”), as described herein shall be construed as obligations, rights, duties, responsibilities, and limitations on the scope of services and liability of RJA. Client acknowledges that the services provided under this Program Agreement may be provided by a financial advisor, as designated by Client herein, that may be registered as a securities agent of Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (“RJFS”), an investment adviser representative of Raymond James Financial Services Advisors, Inc. (“RJFS Advisors”), or an independent investment adviser representative affiliated with RJFS. RJFS is a registered broker-dealer and RJFS Advisors is a registered investment adviser with the Securities and Exchange Commission and both are corporate affiliates of RJA. AMS, RJA, RJFS and RJFS Advisors will be hereafter collectively referred to as “Raymond James”.

Appointment.

Client appoints RJA, through its operating division AMS, to act as Client’s investment adviser, assist Client in selecting a compatible investment strategy developed by the AMS Investment Committee, and upon Client’s selection of an investment strategy, in recommending and monitoring open-end mutual funds with whom Raymond James has entered into a selling agreement with the fund company, which may include affiliates of Raymond James, and/or exchange traded funds (hereinafter referred to collectively as “funds”).

Freedom Program.

Client has chosen to participate in the Program, through which AMS provides certain asset allocation investment strategies (the “Strategy” or “Strategies”). Client understands that AMS develops the Strategies, establishes the respective target allocations, and selects and monitors fund investments in the Strategies.

Establishment of Account.

Upon Client’s selection of a Strategy by completion of this Program Agreement and the deposit of cash and/or securities in the custodial account, AMS shall establish an account(s) in the name of Client to be managed by AMS (“Account(s)”) in accordance with the terms of this Program Agreement. Client has completed the Account Information and Profile (“Client Profile”) section of the separate Account Information and Client Agreement (“Client Agreement”). AMS is entitled to rely on the financial and other information provided by Client. Raymond James will notify Client in writing, at least quarterly, to contact Raymond James if there have been any changes to Client’s financial situation or investment objectives, or any other changes which would affect the Client Profile. Although AMS will, at least annually, contact Client to determine whether there have been any changes to Client’s financial situation or investment objectives, or any changes that would otherwise affect the Client Profile, Client is solely responsible for notifying Raymond James in writing of any material change in the information provided in the Client Profile or in Client’s financial circumstances that may affect the manner in which Client’s Account assets are invested.

Duties of AMS.

Client hereby authorizes AMS to assume all investment duties with respect to assets held in the Account and to exercise sole investment authority with respect to such assets. AMS shall invest and reinvest the assets of the Account in such funds whose shares can be purchased at net asset value (however, such purchases will not be subject to the imposition of any type of sales charge or commission), or other property of any kind as it deems in the best interest of Client in order to achieve the investment objective(s) identified by Client, without regard to holding period, portfolio turnover or resulting gain or loss. AMS will exercise its discretion and deal in and with such assets exactly as fully and freely as Client might do as owner, with or without further consent or authority from Client, except that AMS is not authorized to withdraw any money, securities, or other property either in the name of Client or otherwise, unless expressly authorized by Client. Although Strategies are generally comprised of fund investments, the Client should understand that AMS may decide to invest a certain portion of the Account’s assets in alternative securities to maintain trading flexibility and/or market exposure, or to enhance diversification. Client understands that the target allocation of the Strategy or Strategies selected by Client applies at the time the Account is established.

Additions to and withdrawals from the Account will generally be invested based on the target allocation. Fluctuations in the market value of securities held in the Account, as well as other factors, however, will affect the actual asset allocation in the Account at any given time. AMS will review annually Client's Account thirteen months following its establishment, and annually thereafter, to determine if rebalancing is appropriate based on whether at such time the actual asset allocation varies by more than certain predetermined percentages from the target allocation, as established by AMS. Client understands that AMS may rebalance the Account upon Client's request, and Client can opt out of the rebalance, if applicable, at Client's request.

AMS has established workflow processes for managed accounts to improve the efficiency of high-volume processing activities such as the opening of new Accounts, Strategy changes, investment of cash contributions, disbursement requests and Account terminations. Processing times may differ based on paperwork requirements, the types of securities being bought or sold and the level of complexity involved in each of these processes. The turnaround time necessary for AMS to process Client instructions or requests involving such activities may require several business days to complete under normal market conditions. As a result, Client understands that any instruction or request submitted by Client involving such activities is not considered a market order, and while delays may result due to the volume of similar requests received, AMS will endeavor to process any such instructions or requests in an efficient and timely manner.

If the security or property held in the Account is accompanied by voting rights, Client understands that Client has the right to retain the authority to exercise or delegate such voting rights to a third party, as they may choose. Unless otherwise indicated by Client, AMS shall exercise such voting rights in the manner it deems appropriate. AMS shall have no responsibility to exercise voting rights with respect to securities for which the proxy materials are not available. AMS shall have no responsibility to exercise investment duties with respect to assets in the Account when such assets are in transit to a new custodial account, or when the custodian has not received instruction from the Client authorizing AMS to exercise investment discretion over the assets. AMS will not be obligated to render any advice or take any action on Client's behalf with respect to securities held in the Account, or the issuers thereof, which become the subject of any legal proceedings, including bankruptcies and shareholder litigation. The right to take any actions with respect to legal proceedings, including without limitation bankruptcies and shareholder litigation, and the right to initiate or pursue any legal proceedings with respect to securities held in the Account shall be expressly reserved to Client and Client will not be obligated to join other parties as a condition precedent to initiating or participating in such a proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if your Account is an eligible account it will be auto-enrolled in the Class Action Recovery Service provided by RJA, in its capacity as the custodian or sub-custodian of your accounts, as applicable, and your enrollment authorizes us to automate the class action claim process for your accounts. Material terms of the Class Action Recovery Service may be found in the "Class Action Recovery Service" paragraph of the Important Client Information. AMS shall take receipt of prospectuses and will provide Client copies of such prospectuses upon request.

In its capacity as Subadviser, AMS offers the Tax Overlay Service (or "TOS") as an overlay feature for certain AMS Managed Programs that use model portfolio strategies and/or disciplines. The Tax Overlay Service is provided by AMS utilizing a third-party service provider and is separate and apart from the investment advisory services AMS provides through your Advisory Account under this Program Agreement. The Tax Overlay Service is governed by the Master Tax Overlay Service Agreement ("MTOSA"), which is an Additional Agreement to any Account you elect to enroll in the Tax Overlay Service. Each Advisory Account enrolled in the Tax Overlay Service is assessed a TOS fee pursuant to the MTOSA, and such TOS fee is in addition to the Fee that you pay under this Program Agreement. Enrollment is optional, and if elected as a feature by you, your Tax Overlay Service selections and data will be confirmed to you in a written confirmation along with your other Account details and feature ("Advisory Feature Summary"). Please refer to the MTOSA and the Disclosure Documents for additional information, as well as your Feature Supplement, which refers to the feature specific information which highlights certain key terms and risks of the Tax Overlay Service, you receive along with your Advisory Feature Summary upon enrollment of an eligible account in Tax Overlay Service under the MTOSA.

Investment Strategy.

Client shall designate the Strategy of each Account. In order to change the Strategy of an Account, Client must submit a verbal or written request satisfactory to AMS, subject to verification. AMS will provide Client written confirmation of a change to the Strategy of the Account when initiated by Client via verbal request.

Execution Services.

Client represents that Client has established a custodial account with Raymond James and the financial advisor designated by Client herein or otherwise as provided by Client in writing satisfactory to Raymond James. Client instructs AMS to direct Account execution services to RJA. Client understands that mutual fund redemption transactions may have tax consequences that should be discussed with Client's financial or tax advisor. Client further understands that any securities used to fund the Account or that are later deposited to the Account may be sold by AMS, thus creating a capital gain or loss depending on the cost basis of the securities. Client should consult their tax advisor for advice on the tax implications of such transactions.

Asset-Based Fees.

Client shall pay Raymond James an annual asset-based fee ("Fee") at the rate shown in the attached Asset-Based Fee Schedule. Client understands the Fee includes compensation paid to financial advisor and Raymond James for its execution, custodial and advisory services. Client agrees that the subadvisory fee paid to the financial advisor and Raymond James's Compensation may be changed at any time without notice to or consent from Client; however, in no event will the total Fee charged to Client's Account be increased without Client's consent. Client may negotiate the Fee with the financial advisor or other representative of Raymond James designated by Client. Factors involved in such negotiation may include the size of the brokerage account, Raymond James's policy with respect to discounts, and the Client's relationship with Raymond James's financial advisor. Client understands that unless a lower rate has been negotiated by Client, Client should expect Raymond James will charge Fees based upon the schedule set forth herein. Until paid, any Fee due Raymond James shall constitute a lien upon the Account's assets.

Client acknowledges the fees and charges payable under this Program Agreement may be higher than the aggregate amount of fees and charges Client would pay if Client were to negotiate the fees and charges of each service provider separately, if available. Client understands the Fee includes all execution charges except certain dealer-markups and odd lot differentials, taxes, exchange fees and any other charges imposed by law with regard to any transactions in the Account. Client understands that the Account may also incur charges for other services provided by RJA not directly related to the execution and clearing of transactions including, but not limited to, interest charges on margin loans and fees for legal or courtesy transfers of securities. Client understands the Fee does not include management fees and operating expenses charged by fund company, or other charges resulting from principal transactions associated with the funding of the Account, if any.

Billing.

The annual Fee is assessed quarterly in advance, except for certain limited circumstances as further described in the Disclosure Documents. When the Account is incepted, the Fee is billed for the remainder of the current billing period based on the initial contribution. The initial Fee payment will become due in full on the date of Account inception. Subsequent quarterly Fees will be calculated based on the Account Value as of the last business day of the previous calendar quarter, and becomes due the following business day. If cash or securities, or a combination thereof, amounting to at least $100,000 are deposited to or withdrawn from Client's Account on an individual business day in the first two months of the quarter, Client authorizes Raymond James to: (i) assess a Fee to the deposited assets based on the value of the assets on the date of deposit for the pro rata number of days remaining in the quarter, or (ii) refund prepaid Fees based on the value of the assets on the date of withdrawal for the pro rata number of days remaining in the quarter. No additional Fee or adjustments to previously assessed Fees will be made in connection with deposits or withdrawals that occur during the last month of the quarter unless requested by Client, subject to Raymond James' approval, in its sole discretion. Raymond James may take any action it considers fair and reasonable with respect to the application of Fee adjustments based upon its review of the timing and amounts of deposits to and withdrawals from Client's Accounts, inclusive of when the source and destination of deposits and withdrawals involve Client's other fee-based advisory accounts. Client authorizes and directs custodian or sub-custodian, as applicable, to deduct the Fees from the Account. Client further authorizes and directs the custodian or sub-custodian, as applicable, to send a quarterly statement to Client which shows all amounts disbursed from Client's Account, including Fees paid to Raymond James. Where RJA serves as Client's custodian or sub-custodian, as applicable, Client understands that the statement supplied to Client by Raymond James will show the Account Value on which the Fee was based and the manner in which the Fee was calculated; all Fees paid to Raymond James from Client's Accounts will be reported on the quarterly statement or Client will be notified separately via invoice. For the purposes of this Program Agreement, the term "Account Value" shall mean the total of the absolute market values of each of the non-cash assets (e.g., securities, other investment vehicles) in the Account, long or short, including all cash credit balances, but excluding cash debit balances and non-billable assets. Please refer to RJA's Wrap Fee Program Brochure for additional information, inclusive of the treatment of cash for billing purposes and what types of investments qualify as "non-billable" and when these investments may become subject to the Fee.

Withdrawal from Accounts.

Client may withdraw cash or securities from the Account upon providing verbal or written notice to Raymond James, subject to verification. Client may submit written request to withdraw cash from the Account on a periodic basis. Withdrawals will be taken from cash balances to the extent it is available. When cash is depleted the Account will be re-balanced to the target allocation. All efforts will be made by AMS to process the withdrawal request in an efficient and timely manner. However, any such request is not considered a market order and delays may result due to factors including, but not limited to, the volume of similar requests received by AMS and open trades as of the date of the withdrawal request. Client understands that the turnaround time necessary for AMS to process Client's withdrawal request may require several business days to complete under normal market conditions, and will generally be processed in the order in which it is received by AMS. Resulting trades, if any, will be executed at market prices. Raymond James is not responsible for changes in market prices that occur between its receipt of a request to withdraw cash and trade execution. Client understands that any withdrawals (periodic or otherwise) requiring a liquidation of securities will affect the model asset allocation, and thereby affect the performance of the Account. Client hereby authorizes the financial advisor designated herein (or the financial advisor's successor) to effect withdrawals from the Account pursuant to Client's request and on Client's behalf, except that such withdrawals may be refused if the withdrawal would reduce the Account balance below the Account minimum. If Client withdraws cash or securities from the Account prior to delivering proper notice to AMS, Raymond James shall not be responsible, nor liable to Client, for losses to the Account that may result from the need to reverse transactions in the Account for which those assets were to be utilized but were not available. Raymond James reserves the right to terminate the Client's Account or this Program Agreement where the total value of cash and securities in the Account falls to a value which Raymond James determines cannot be economically or effectively managed due to the small account size. Client understands that the Account is not intended as a short-term investment vehicle and that such withdrawals from the Account may impair the achievement of Client's stated investment objective(s).

Successors and Assigns.

No party may assign any of its rights, powers or duties under this Agreement without the other party's written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, RJA may assign its rights, responsibilities and obligations to a parent (direct or indirect), subsidiary or an affiliate thereof. Successors of an entity may assume the obligations, rights or responsibilities under this Program Agreement without written consent of all parties if there is no change in actual control or management of the entity and no material change in the ability to perform services contemplated under the Agreement.

Termination of Participation in the Freedom Program.

AMS or Raymond James may terminate this Program Agreement at any time by providing notice of such election to Client. This Agreement will terminate automatically upon receipt by Raymond James of notice of the death of the Client. Client may terminate this Program Agreement by providing Raymond James verbal or written notice, subject to verification. Client hereby authorizes the financial advisor designated herein (or the financial advisor's successor) to terminate the Agreement pursuant to Client's request and on Client's behalf. AMS will provide Client written confirmation of termination of this Program Agreement when initiated by Client via verbal request. All efforts will be made by AMS to process the termination request in an efficient and timely manner. However, any such request is not considered a market order and delays may result due to factors including, but not limited to, the volume of similar requests received by AMS and open trades as of the date of the termination request. Client understands that the turnaround time necessary for AMS to process Client's termination request may require several business days to complete under normal market conditions, and will generally be processed in the order in which it is received by AMS. Resulting trades, if any, will be executed at market prices. Raymond James is not responsible for changes in market prices that occur between its receipt of the termination request and trade execution. Upon termination of the Account, Client acknowledges that Raymond James will have no further obligation to recommend or take any action with respect to the securities or cash in the Account. Upon termination, Client shall receive a refund of the unearned portion of the prepaid Fee. Termination shall not affect Client's responsibility for transactions initiated prior to AMS's receipt of Client's termination notice. All fees and charges accruing prior to termination of the Account will be deducted from the assets of the Account. Upon termination of this Agreement, unless specific written instruction is received from the Client (or from the financial advisor on behalf of the Client), RJA may liquidate any securities in the Account and the Account will be converted to a commission-based brokerage account. Client shall refer to Client's account opening documentation for additional information regarding commission-based brokerage accounts. Any proceeds from liquidation, along with any cash balance in the Account, may be sent via check to Client's address of record.

Liability.

Raymond James shall not be liable to Client for any loss incurred in connection with recommendations or investment decisions made or actions taken on Client's behalf, or in connection with errors of judgment in managing the Account, that were not resulting from Raymond James' negligence, willful misfeasance, or reckless disregard of its duties hereunder. Performance is not guaranteed. All investments include risk and have the potential for both loss and gain. However, there may be circumstances in which Raymond James may be liable. Specifically, Federal and state securities laws impose liability in certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith, and nothing in this Program Agreement shall constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Client may have under applicable state or federal laws. AMS shall not be liable to Client for any loss resulting from any act or omission of Client. The assessment of suitability of investments made by Raymond James on Client's behalf is based on information Client has provided to their financial advisor and Raymond James. To the extent Client fails to inform their financial advisor and Raymond James of his/her particular financial circumstances, including providing information about investments held by Client through an investment adviser and/or brokerage firm other than Raymond James, Client understands that Raymond James is limited in its ability to ensure that investments it makes on behalf of Client are appropriate for Client in light of Client's overall financial circumstances and investment objectives. It is important to review investment objectives, risk tolerance, tax objectives and liquidity needs before choosing Strategy. In making an investment decision Client understands they may utilize other information sources and the advice of their financial, legal, or tax advisors.

Disclosure.

AMS is a division of RJA, which is registered as an investment adviser and broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Client should refer to Client's account opening documentation and RJA's Wrap Fee Program Brochure for further information regarding RJA's business relationships with affiliated entities, and its custodial services with respect to cash reserves of Client's accounts. With respect to cash reserves of the Account, the custodian of the Account assets will determine what cash reserve options are available to Client. Where RJA acts as custodian or sub-custodian, as applicable, Client may be offered one or multiple options based on their account type.

Carillon Tower Advisers, Inc. d/b/a Raymond James Investment Management, RJA, RJFS and RJFS Advisors are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Raymond James Financial, Inc., a publicly owned corporation. Entities associated with the Carillon Family of Funds are affiliates of Raymond James. The participation of affiliated funds may create an incentive for AMS to recommend an affiliated fund over a similarly qualified and suitable non-affiliated fund. However, AMS does not receive additional compensation for recommending an affiliated fund over a non-affiliated fund. Please note that each Strategy available in the Program has been constructed by the AMS Investment Committee to offer an alternative that does not contain an affiliated fund. Clients may select a Strategy that does not invest in funds affiliated with Raymond James, as Client may choose.

Tax-qualified retirement Accounts will be automatically invested in the Strategy selected by Client that does not invest in affiliated funds, as federal regulations prohibit affiliated funds from being purchased in tax-qualified retirement advisory accounts. For non-retirement Accounts, if no selection is made by Client in the Agreement, Client should understand that the Strategy selected will serve as Client's authorization to utilize affiliated funds, where applicable. Client may revoke this authorization at any time by providing AMS written notice to such effect.

Certain strategies may be designed for and only available to investors who qualify as non- "U.S. persons" under Regulations S of the Securities Act of 1933. Such strategies, when offered will be comprised of Undertakings for the Collective Investment in Transferable Securities ("UCITS") and offshore mutual funds.

Other Expenses.

Certain open-end mutual funds ("fund" or "funds") that may be acquired in Client's Account, may, in addition to assessing management fees, assess other internal expenses such as 12b-1 fees or "trails", administrative fees and "other expenses". To the extent that Raymond James may receive 12b-1 fees or trails from funds, Client will receive a credit to the Account in an amount equal to such fees received from the funds held in Client's Account. The foregoing fees are generally included in the calculation of operating expenses of a fund and are disclosed in the fund prospectus. In addition, RJA and/or its affiliates may enter into arrangements with funds or their affiliates in connection with the sale and/or maintenance of assets in funds that result in additional direct or indirect compensation being received by Raymond James and/or its affiliates. These arrangements create a financial incentive for RJA and its affiliates to acquire certain funds over other funds on Client's behalf. These additional compensation arrangements may not necessarily be reflected in a fund's expenses and may be paid solely out of the assets of an affiliate of the fund.

You understand that this Program involves investment in mutual funds and/or ETFs, and that the annual Fee does not include investment costs associated with mutual funds and ETFs that are the basis of your selected strategy or discipline. For the mutual funds and/or ETFs strategies in the Program, you also pay your pro-rata share of the annual management fees and operating expenses charged by open-end mutual funds and ETFs, which will affect the overall costs paid by you. These are the underlying fees related to investment products purchased within the Advisory Account. These annual management fees and operating expenses are assessed by the fund directly and not by Raymond James, and result in you paying more than clients using a strategy that invests in individual securities, without taking into effect negotiated asset-based fee discounts, if any, as described more in the Disclosure Documents. The cost structure of ETFs and mutual funds (or UCITS and offshore funds, as applicable) can differ depending on whether the fund is actively managed (funds that invest in a portfolio of securities intended to outperform a broad market, sector, or benchmark) or passively managed (funds that track a broad market or custom-built index and invest in the component securities of the particular index). Actively managed funds typically have higher management fees and operating expenses than funds that are passively managed. Please contact your IAR for more information regarding cost structure of actively and passively managed funds. To the extent that you intend to hold mutual fund or ETF shares for an extended period of time, you should review these fund expenses in addition to the annual Fee charged to your Account when evaluating the costs of the Program. In addition, certain mutual fund families impose short-term trading charges (typically 1% to 2% of the original amount invested) which may not be waived for fee-based accounts.

Acknowledgement of Receipt of Disclosure Brochure.

The Wrap Fee Program Brochure is an integral part of this Agreement and Client's relationship with RJA. As required by Rule 204-3 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Client certifies receipt of RJA's Wrap Fee Program Brochure and applicable Brochure Supplements. A copy of RJA's Wrap Fee Brochure may be found at: <https://www.raymondjames.com/legal-disclosures>.

ERISA Plans.

If an Account is established on behalf of a plan subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") (the "Plan"), as the person(s) executing this Program Agreement on behalf of the Plan, Client hereby represents that they are a "Named Fiduciary" as that term is contemplated by ERISA, with respect to the control or management of the assets of the Plan, and that Client is empowered and has the authority to appoint RJA as a service provider for the Plan. Client hereby acknowledges that the designation of RJA as a service provider, and the investments and related transactions contemplated by this Program Agreement, are consistent with and permissible under the Plan's governing documents and ERISA.

Client further acknowledges that in performing its services under this Program Agreement, RJA does not act as, nor has RJA agreed to, assume the duties of a trustee or the "Plan Administrator", as each such term is defined in ERISA. Client acknowledges that in performing its services RJA does not have authority to interpret the Plan Documents, to determine eligibility or participation under the Plan, to provide participant disclosures or communications, or to take any other action with respect to the management, administration or any other aspect of the Plan. RJA acknowledges that it is a covered service provider (as the term is contemplated in the regulations under section 408(b)(2) of ERISA). RJA reasonably expects to provide services pursuant to this Program Agreement directly to the Plan as an investment adviser registered under the Advisers Act or applicable state law.

U.S. Department of Labor regulations require a "covered service provider" to disclose to a "responsible plan fiduciary" of an employee benefit plan subject to ERISA certain information in connection with the services that a service provider provides to a plan, to assist the responsible plan fiduciary in evaluating the reasonableness of fees and expenses in light of the services available to a plan. Raymond James' comprehensive disclosure document is available at www.raymondjames.com/408b2. By signing, you acknowledge that you (i) are the responsible plan fiduciary, (ii) authorize engagement of RJA to provide services to the Plan, (iii) have read and understand the disclosure, and (iv) agree that the fees and expenses to be paid are reasonable.

Arbitration and Dispute Resolution.

All disputes and controversies that may arise between Client and Raymond James concerning any transaction, or the construction, performance or breach of this or any agreement between Client and Raymond James, shall be resolved in accordance with the "Arbitration and Dispute Resolution" provisions of the separate Client Agreement signed by Client. If, for any reason, the facilities of the self-regulatory organizations named in the Client Agreement are unavailable to the parties, the dispute or controversy shall be resolved by arbitration, pursuant to the rules, then applying, of the American Arbitration Association, except to the extent set forth herein.

The arbitration panel shall consist of at least three individuals, with at least one panelist having knowledge of investment advisory activities. The parties agree that any arbitration proceeding pursuant to this provision shall be held in St. Petersburg, Florida and shall be governed by Florida law. The award of the arbitrators shall be final, and judgment upon the award rendered may be entered in any court, state or federal, having jurisdiction. Nothing in this Program Agreement shall constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which the Client may have under applicable state or federal law to pursue remedies against Raymond James in other forums, including state and federal courts.

Representations by Client.

Client represents that the terms hereof do not violate any obligation by which Client is bound, whether arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise. If acting as a fiduciary, Client represents that: (a) the investment objective(s) designated by Client is within the scope of the investments and policies authorized by the governing instrument; (b) Client is authorized by the governing instrument to delegate discretionary investment management authority to AMS, as set forth in this Program Agreement; and (c) Client will deliver to AMS such evidence of Client's authority to act as it may reasonably require, whether by way of certified resolution, trust agreement, or otherwise.

Notices.

All written notices from Client shall be deemed effective when received by Raymond James at: 880 Carillon Parkway, St. Petersburg, FL 33716. Written notices required from Raymond James to Client shall be deemed effective when sent to Client at the address shown in the Client Profile. Each party shall be entitled to presume the correctness of such addresses until notified to the contrary. Receipt of a telegram, electronic mail message or facsimile transmission by either party will constitute receipt of written notice. Raymond James shall not be liable to Client for any action reasonably taken by AMS in reliance upon receipt of instructions from Client, including those communicated by the financial advisor designated herein (or the financial advisor's successor) pursuant to Client's request and on Client's behalf. Raymond James is authorized to act on oral instructions concerning Client's Account and Raymond James is not liable for acting on any false oral instructions if the instructions reasonably appeared to Raymond James to be genuine.

Client authorizes Raymond James to electronically record any and all communications between Client and Client's representative(s) and Raymond James.

Governing Law.

This Program Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without the application of the principles of choice of law. This Program Agreement is also intended to conform to the requirements of, and to be construed and interpreted in accordance with, ERISA, when applicable.

Severability.

It is understood by the parties hereto that if any term, provision, duty, obligation or undertaking herein contained is held by the courts to be unenforceable or illegal or in conflict with the applicable state law, the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected, and the rights and obligations of the parties shall be construed and enforced as if such invalid or unenforceable provision were not contained herein.

Counterparts; Electronic Signatures

This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement. You and Raymond James each agree that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be conducted or performed, in the whole or in part, by electronic means and that electronic signatures, whether digital or encrypted, to this Agreement are intended to authenticate this writing and to have the same force and effect as manual signatures. Electronic signatures shall include any electronic symbol, sound or process attached to or logically associated with this Agreement and executed or adopted by you or Raymond James with the intent to sign this Agreement.

Amendment.

This Program Agreement may be amended by (1) Raymond James upon thirty days' advance written notice and delivered pursuant to this Program Agreement, or (2) by a writing approved and executed by the parties hereto.

Effective Date.

This Program Agreement will be effective upon execution by both Client and Raymond James.
